Welcome

We are limbering up for another year of fabulous exhibitions and displays at State Library of Queensland. First out of the blocks is our Lifestyle: a sunshine state of mind exhibition that explores the way Queenslanders have pursued meaningful and rewarding lives since the late 1800s. The Queen's Baton display takes centre stage in the Asia Pacific Design Library just in time for the 2018 Gold Coast Commonwealth Games. And a showcase of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sporting greats will make you rethink the meaning of the word hero.

Join us for monthly conversations by the fire in the Talking Circle, and bring your love of architecture to the Asia Pacific Architecture Forum which returns to SLQ in March. And the popular Queenslanders in Conversation talk series is back, so make sure you get in quickly to book your place.

If you are keen to learn something new this year, why not become an SLQ member and enjoy free access to online courses through Lynda.com? You can get started today at slq.qld.gov.au/lynda.

We look forward to welcoming you to State Library soon.

EXHIBITION

Lifestyle: a sunshine state of mind

Open daily 3 Mar – 21 Oct | SLQ Gallery, level 2 | Free

Across the globe, people seek meaning in their everyday lives. From playing weekend sport, going to the beach with friends or cooking a meal for loved ones — our quest for understanding and connection is constant and varied.

Lifestyle explores how Queenslanders live and play across the state. Showcasing a range of SLQ's rare and restricted collection items, this hands-on exhibition explores the myriad of ideas and identities that are quintessentially Queensland.

EXHIBITION

Magnificent Makers

Open daily until 3 Jun
Philip Bacon Heritage Gallery, level 4 | Free

Explore the stories of a group of canny creators, daring discovers and imaginative inventors that trace a path through Queensland's history since the late 19th century. Together they help tell the story of our state, showcasing the inspiring achievements of incredible men and women who took a chance on their ideas — resourceful, trail-blazing or altruistic — and transformed them into lasting legacies.

Magnificent Makers draws on SLQ's rich collections to explore the lives of these relatively unknown Queensland innovators through photographs, drawings, blueprints and objects.
