AGILE WEEK – BLUE TEAM

Free parking ends Friday

Free parking for staff in the State Library carpark will conclude on Friday 17 July.

Safety while working from home

If you have any workplace health and safety concerns while you're working remotely, please raise these with your People Leader in the first instance. Your People Leader can help you work through any issues, and will get in contact with Facilities if further support is needed.

COVID-Safe Site Plan addendum approved

In order to reopen the John Oxley Library today, we needed to submit an addendum to our COVID-Safe Site Plan to Queensland Health. This addendum was formally approved last week, and will guide our approach to operating safely.
