

Guidelines for entry

About Queensland Memory Awards

State Library's Queensland Memory Awards program is dedicated to supporting researchers of all kinds to interpret the collections of the John Oxley Library. Through deep engagement and interaction with the collections, these interpretations provide new insights into the collection and contribute new knowledge about Queensland's history.

Queensland Memory Awards fellowships and residencies on offer in 2021:

- John Oxley Library Fellowship $20,000
- Queensland Business Leaders Hall of Fame Fellowship $15,000
- Monica Clare Research Fellowship $15,000
- John Oxley Library Honorary Fellowship (no application required). No honorarium.

Award Nominations

- Nominations for awarding the 2020 John Oxley Library Award, the John Oxley Library Community History Award and the Business History Award can be made by completing a nomination form here.

What does a fellowship or residency offer?

- A supportive environment for extended research and inquiry
- A shared back of house workspace in the Neil Roberts Research Lounge on level 4 of State Library of Queensland
- An honorarium paid in scheduled instalments (excl. the John Oxley Library Honorary Fellowship). The honorarium can be expended at the fellow's discretion
- Free Wi-Fi, printing and photocopying
- Access to staff expertise and support
- Access to State Library's collections
- Special borrowing privileges

What are fellows or residents required to do?

- Contribute at least three (3) articles to State Library's John Oxley Library Blog related to his/her research.
- Provide two (2) reports about their progress to date.
- Participate in at least one (1) public program related to his/her research project such as the Research Reveals events.
- Deposit a copy of any work produced with the John Oxley Library.
- Be available for publicity purposes relating to the fellowship or residency, including media interviews and social media engagement.
- Participate in creating a digital story or filmed presentation about his/her fellowship or residency.
- Compile and submit an annotated bibliography of the research undertaken and presented to the State Library for use as a research resource at the conclusion of the fellowship.
- Ensure outcomes of the research undertaken as part of the fellowship or residency acknowledge the State Library of Queensland.

- Provide new insights into State Library's collection and contribute new knowledge about Queensland's history.
- Fellows are required to sign a Memorandum of Agreement with State Library, detailing payment schedule and other requirements listed above.

Who can apply?

Researchers and writers of any discipline, historians, curators, visual and performing artists, filmmakers, musicians and digital creatives are all welcome to apply. Queensland Memory fellowships, residencies and awards are open to applications from individuals only. Applications from groups, University or Australian Research Council (ARC) research teams will not be accepted.

Interstate applicants are welcome however onsite use of the Neil Roberts Research Lounge at State Library of Queensland is expected for a portion of the fellow/scholar's tenure.

If you are currently in receipt of a funded fellowship or residency from another institution, please indicate this in your application. The fellowship is not intended to support research projects which are a component of postgraduate studies.

If your project has already commenced, you are eligible to apply.

If you are a Queensland State Government employee, please provide evidence of the support of your manager (email/letter) with your completed application. State Library of Queensland employees are ineligible to apply.

If you would like to be considered for the John Oxley Library Honorary Fellowship, please select this option on the entry form. This applies only to applicants for the John Oxley Library Fellowship. The Honorary Fellowship may be offered to the first shortlisted applicant after the winner.

How to apply - online

- Select the fellowship or residency you would like to apply for.
- Complete the online entry form. All fields must be completed to submit your application.
- Complete the fellowship application form or an Expression of Interest (EOI).
- If you are applying for the Monica Clare Research Fellowship, please also attach a copy of Confirmation of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Descent or Letter of confirmation with your application form.
- You will receive an email acknowledgement of receipt of your application. Important! If you do not receive an email acknowledging receipt, please check your spam/junk folder first and then contact the Research Coordinator immediately at the email address or phone number listed below.

For further information please email: fellowships@slq.qld.gov.au or phone: 07 3840 7879 or 3840 7887

All completed applications or EOIs (including any attachments) must be received by State Library no later than 5pm Thursday 25 March 2021.

What happens to my application/EOI?

An independent judging panel approved by the State Librarian and CEO will assess all applications. The judging panel may, at their discretion, interview short-listed applicants.

The successful applicant will be notified before any public announcement.

All applicants will be notified in writing as to the outcome of their application/EOI, approximately 8 weeks after the closing date. Successful applicants will be announced at the Queensland Memory Awards ceremony in June 2021.

The decision of the judging panel is final and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into with regards to the panel's decision.

Fellows/scholars will be provided with physical space, Wi-Fi and printing access to conduct their own research. Fellows/scholars will be expected to bring in their own laptop computers or digital devices to complete their projects. Fellows/scholars will be given an initial orientation and introduction to State Library. Fellows should liaise with the Research Coordinator to assist with their day-to-day needs.