About the President's Circle

The President's Circle is a valued group of supporters who share a belief in the importance of free public access to knowledge and learning for all. Your gift helps State Library to go above and beyond in our services by creating a sustained funding source for priority projects. You can show your support through annual donations of $1000 for a minimum of three years.

The President's Circle donors enjoy an in-depth connection with State Library's specialist staff and the multitude of stories contained in our unique collections via newsletters and regular President's Circle events.

About State Library of Queensland

Founded in 1896, State Library of Queensland is the leading reference and research library in Queensland.
