

STATE LIBRARY OF QUEENSLAND STRATEGIC PLAN 2022-26

VISION

Inspiring possibilities through knowledge, stories and creativity

PURPOSE

Founded in 1896, State Library of Queensland is the leading reference and research library in Queensland. State Library is responsible for collecting and preserving a comprehensive collection of Queensland's cultural and documentary heritage, providing free access to information for all Queenslanders, and for the advancement of public libraries across the state.

State Library is committed to the Queensland Government's objectives for the community –

Good jobs: Good, secure jobs in our traditional and emerging industries. State Library is investing in skills by providing all Queenslanders with free access to online learning resources.

Better services: Deliver even better services right across Queensland. State Library is connecting Queensland through our partnership with local government to deliver public library services and Indigenous Knowledge Centres. We foster greater social inclusion through documenting and making accessible Queensland's diverse history and stories, and we build Queenslanders' digital capability. State Library is backing our frontline services by delivering world-class reference and information services.

Great lifestyle: Protect and enhance our Queensland lifestyle as we grow. State Library honours and embraces our rich and ancient cultural history by enabling truth-telling through our diverse and rich collections, community engagement and exhibitions. State Library's partnerships are growing our regions by enabling deeply local service provision in public libraries and Indigenous Knowledge Centres.

State Library's objectives and strategies align with Creative Together: 2020-30: A 10-year Roadmap for arts, culture and creativity in Queensland to:

- elevate First Nations arts – by sharing and celebrating First Nations perspectives through language revitalisation, knowledge creation and truth-telling in culturally informed and respectful ways
- activate Queensland's local places and global digital spaces – enabling statewide access to collections and integrating rich digital experiences into programs, learning initiatives and exhibitions
- drive social change across the state – delivering programs that encourage discussion, debate and lifelong learning to increase awareness, understanding and tolerance across Queensland
- strengthen Queensland communities – partnering with local government to realise the potential of libraries and Indigenous Knowledge Centres as vibrant community hubs building community resilience
- share our stories and celebrate our storytellers – as a memory institution intentionally seek, collect and share authentic Queensland stories, and nurture and celebrate emerging writers.

STRATEGIC RISKS

1. Changing community needs and expectations, technology and learning styles – we must meet changing client needs to sustain audience growth. We will continue to transform, innovate and deliver relevant services
2. ICT infrastructure and security – we must provide trusted, reliable and secure ICT services and enable access, preservation, and delivery of digital collections. We will continue to develop strategies and capability, and prioritise funding to update ICT infrastructure
3. Business continuity – we must manage the impacts of disasters including COVID-19 and extreme weather events. We will continue to review and update our risk mitigation and business continuity plans
4. Digital inclusion – we must work to ensure Queenslanders statewide are able to access our online services and contribute to the digital economy. We will work with our partners to build digital inclusion and engagement
5. Transformation of library collections, services and programs to meet the digital age and changing community needs – we must ensure the community understands the value of libraries in a rapidly changing environment. We will build awareness of the role and value that libraries provide.

STRATEGIC OPPORTUNITIES

1. We have the opportunity to reach Queenslanders statewide due to our proven experience and capability in digital delivery
2. We have the opportunity to contribute to digital inclusion due to our proven experience in digital delivery and effective partnerships
3. We have the opportunity to make a significant contribution to Path to Treaty and truth telling due to our diverse and rich collections, experience in community engagement and strong partnerships
4. We have the opportunity to meet and anticipate future client demand through optimising the building spaces, due to the resilience of the Millennium Library Project design and our ongoing service planning.
